TERRY PEGULA

OWNER/CEO

Terry Pegula is a self-made success story, rising from humble beginnings to become one of the most respected leaders in the energy industry and one of very few professional sports owners to operate franchises in multiple sports.

On Feb. 22, 2011, Terry and Kim Pegula, who had previously been season ticket holders, realized their dream of owning a hockey franchise by purchasing the NHL's Buffalo Sabres. They followed up their commitment to hockey by purchasing the AHL's Rochester Americans later that year, restoring a longtime affiliation between the Sabres and Amerks.

Raised in Carbondale, Pennsylvania, Terry is a 1969 graduate of Scranton Preparatory School. He entered Penn State University as a math major and was accepted into the Petroleum and Natural Gas Engineering Program with a scholarship. He went on to graduate with a Bachelor of Science degree in 1973 and landed his first job with Getty Oil Co. in Victoria, Texas. He later joined Felmont Oil Co. as an Area Engineer, a decision that brought him to Olean, New York in 1975.

In 1983, Terry borrowed $7,500 from family and friends to create East Resources Inc., an independent oil and gas exploration and production company operating in the Appalachian Basin. Over the next 27 years, Terry built East into one of the largest privately held companies in the United States. In July of 2010, Royal Dutch Shell purchased the assets of East Resources Inc., which continues to be active today. In 2012, Terry formed JKLM Energy. JKLM is staffed with many former East Resources employees and takes pride in contributing to U.S. energy independence by producing Pennsylvania natural gas, elevating the state into one of the top producing regions in the world.

Upon the sale of East Resources assets, Terry focused his attention on his love of sports. In September of 2010, the Pegulas announced a gift of $102 million to construct Pegula Ice Arena, paving the way for Division I hockey at Penn State and helping to form the Big Ten Hockey Conference.

The Pegulas then began construction of a multipurpose ice complex and opened LECOM Harborcenter in 2014. The $200 million personally financed complex, next door to the Sabres' KeyBank Center, includes two NHL hockey rinks, training facilities, four restaurants, a full-service Marriott Hotel and parking. The combination of KeyBank Center and LECOM Harborcenter have allowed Buffalo to be a center for hockey, hosting the 2016 NHL Draft, NHL Combine, 2018 IIHF World Junior Hockey Championship and the 2019 NCAA Frozen Four.

Together with his wife Kim, Terry added another franchise to their Buffalo holdings on Oct. 10, 2014. The Pegulas received the unanimous approval of NFL owners to succeed Pro Football Hall of Famer Ralph C. Wilson, Jr. and become the second owners in the storied history of the Buffalo Bills.

Terry serves as CEO of the Bills and currently sits on the NFL's Health and Safety committee. In 2016, the Pegulas were honored with the Tank Younger Award, which recognizes extraordinary contributions towards diversity in the NFL.

In addition to overseeing the family's sports operations, Terry runs JKLM Energy in Pittsburgh, and his business operations in Boca Raton, Florida. Terry and Kim have five children: Michael, Laura, Jessica, Kelly and Matthew.

KIM PEGULA

OWNER/PRESIDENT

Kim Pegula is the President and CEO of Pegula Sports and Entertainment, and President of both the Buffalo Sabres and the Buffalo Bills.

A native of Fairport, New York, she attended nearby Houghton College and graduated in 1991 with a degree in communications. Kim began her professional career with East Resources in 1991 and was involved with the company until its sale in 2010.

Kim got her start in sports in 2011 after she and her husband Terry purchased the Buffalo Sabres. They followed up their commitment to hockey by purchasing the AHL's Rochester Americans, restoring a longtime affiliation between the Sabres and Amerks. In May 2018, she became the first female to hold the post of President for both an NHL and NFL team. Kim and Terry's sports ownership also extends to the NLL Buffalo Bandits and Rochester Knighthawks and the AHL Rochester Americans.

On Oct. 8, 2014, Kim, along with her husband Terry, realized another dream as they became only the second owners of the Buffalo Bills. Kim currently serves on the NFL's Super Bowl and Major Events Advisory Committee, Business Ventures Committee, and NFL Foundation Committee. She also serves on the Board of Directors of the Hockey Hall of Fame and Museum and the Republic Services Group.

After owning multiple professional sports in the same market, Kim launched Pegula Sports and Entertainment (PSE) in 2014, creating a management company that oversees the business operations across all Pegula-owned entities and sports teams. Since its inception, PSE has expanded its reach to include LECOM Harborcenter, a multipurpose facility anchored by two NHL-size ice rinks and a Marriott Hotel franchise; PicSix, a full-service creative agency specializing in video, digital and marketing creative services for a variety of companies; a hospitality division that operates multiple restaurants including (716) Food and Sport, a Tim Hortons Café and Bake Shop franchise, The Healthy Scratch cafe and the newest addition The Draft Room. In 2017, PSE added ADPRO Sports to their portfolio, offering branded merchandise to teams and companies across the country.

PSE, through its managed entities, has been key to bringing new business opportunities to Buffalo including multi-year agreements to host the NHL Combine, the 2016 NHL Draft, the 2018 IIHF World Junior Championship and the 2019 Frozen Four, as well as a wide variety of stadium and arena concerts, and national and international tournament events at all levels. Kim and the PSE entities have been honored with a number of awards including Business First's Most Influential People, NYS Emmy Awards for sports content, Buffalo Best Place To Work, the Tank Younger Award for embracing diversity in the NFL, and numerous individual recognitions of PSE's staff.

Kim and Terry have also given back to encourage the growth of sports and the many intangible benefits they believe sports creates for individuals, fans and their community. In 2010 the Pegula's gave an unprecedented $102 million for the creation of the Pegula Ice Arena at Terry's Alma mater Penn State. The facility allowed for Penn State's hockey program to become a NCAA Division I team and was the final piece for the formation of the Big Ten Hockey Conference. Kim also gave back to her alma mater, Houghton College, with a gift of $12 million to build the Kerr-Pegula Athletic Complex, allowing Houghton College athletics to become a Division III program.

JASON BOTTERILL

GENERAL MANAGER

Jason Botterill was named the eighth general manager in Buffalo Sabres history on May 11, 2017 and enters his third season in that role and his 14th overall as a member of NHL front offices.

Before joining the Sabres, Botterill spent 10 seasons as a member of the Pittsburgh Penguins' front office, where he was integral in building the rosters of three Stanley Cup-winning teams. His most recent role was that of associate general manager, a position he held from 2014 onward. In that role, Botterill was involved in scouting, player development, contract negotiations and salary cap management. He also served as general manager of the AHL's Wilkes-Barre/Scranton Penguins from 2009-10 to 2016-17, guiding the team to two division titles and eight consecutive playoff appearances.

Botterill originally joined the Penguins as their director of hockey administration in July 2007 after serving as a scout for the Dallas Stars in 2006-07. He was later promoted to assistant general manager in 2009 before becoming the associate general manager in 2014.

A native of Edmonton, Alberta, Botterill developed a championship pedigree during his playing career. He won a gold medal as a member of the Canadian World Junior Championship team in 1994, 1995 and 1996, and was a part of the University of Michigan's NCAA Championship squad in 1996. Botterill later won a Calder Cup in 2001 as a member of the St. John Flames (AHL).

Botterill played in the Sabres organization during his final three professional seasons, posting eight points (3+5) in 36 games for the Sabres and 100 points (59+41) in 118 games for the Rochester Americans (AHL). During his eight-year playing career, the forward appeared in a total of 88 NHL games, 270 AHL contests and 123 IHL games.

RANDY SEXTON

ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

Randy Sexton returns to the Sabres for his third year as assistant general manager for the 2019-20 season.

Among other responsibilities, Sexton, a 19-year veteran of NHL front offices, will oversee the amateur scouting department and serve as general manager of Buffalo's AHL affiliate, the Rochester Americans. During his time as general manager of the Amerks, the team has made the playoffs both seasons, combining for an 83-45-24 record (.625) in that time.

Prior to joining the Sabres, Sexton spent seven seasons with the Pittsburgh Penguins' scouting department after joining the team as assistant director of amateur scouting in 2010-11, including his last two seasons as the team's director of amateur scouting. In this role, he oversaw the team's amateur scouting operations in North America and Europe.

Prior to his time with the Penguins, Sexton logged several years of NHL front office experience in stints with the Ottawa Senators (1990 to 1995) and the Florida Panthers (2006 to 2010). As one of the Senators' founders, he was instrumental in helping to bring an NHL team back to Ottawa, eventually serving as the club's president, chief executive officer and general manager during his time with the team. He served as assistant general manager for the Panthers for four seasons before being promoted to general manager in February 2009.

STEVE GREELEY

Steve Greeley is in his third season as assistant general manager for the Sabres after being named to the position in June 2017. Among his responsibilities, Greeley oversees the team's pro scouting staff and player development department.

Greeley joined the Sabres after spending two seasons as the assistant director of player personnel for the New York Rangers. Before his tenure with the Rangers, Greeley spent two seasons as an associate coach at his alma mater, Boston University, where he played a vital role in the school's recruiting process.

Greeley also spent seven seasons (2006-07 to 2012-13) in the scouting department for the Los Angeles Kings and served as a regional scout for the U.S. National Team Development Program from 2009 to 2012 and again from 2015 to 2017.

MARK JAKUBOWSKI

VICE PRESIDENT OF HOCKEY ADMINISTRATION

Mark Jakubowski begins his 15th year with the Sabres and his third as vice president of hockey administration. Before moving to his current role, Jakubowski spent seven seasons serving as assistant to the general manager and three seasons as the team's assistant general manager.

His responsibilities include salary cap analysis, contract research relating to player negotiations and arbitrations, managing player transfers, team roster administration, and all matters relating to compliance with the NHL Collective Bargaining Agreement and other NHL agreements.

RALPH KRUEGER

HEAD COACH

Ralph Krueger was named the 19th head coach in Buffalo Sabres history on May 15, 2019 and he will embark on his first season behind the bench for the team in 2019-20.

Krueger returns to the NHL after spending the last five-plus seasons as the Chairman of Southampton Football Club, a soccer team that currently plays in England's Premier League. During his tenure in England, Krueger helped guide Southampton to four consecutive top-eight finishes in England's top league for the first time in the club's 127-year history.

Before his time in soccer, Krueger served as the head coach of the Edmonton Oilers during the 2012-13 season after spending the 2010-11 and 2011-12 campaigns as the team's associate coach. From the time he joined the Oilers in 2010, Krueger was part of a coaching staff that helped improve the team's goals against per game by .66 in three years, culminating in the sixth-best mark in franchise history (2.73) during his only season as head coach. Prior to beginning his NHL coaching career with Edmonton, Krueger served as a European Consultant for the Carolina Hurricanes from 2005 to 2010.

A native of Winnipeg, Manitoba, Krueger's most recent hockey experience has taken place in international competition. In 2014, he won an Olympic gold medal as a consultant to Team Canada's coaching staff. Most recently, he served as the head coach of Team Europe, who finished as runners-up at the 2016 World Cup of Hockey.

Krueger began his coaching career during the 1991-92 season as head coach of VEU Feldkirch in the Austrian Hockey League, where he spent seven seasons and led the team to five consecutive championships (1994 to 1998) and a European Champions League title in 1998. He spent the next 13 years as head coach of the Swiss national team, serving behind Switzerland's bench for three Winter Olympic Games and 12 IIHF World Championships. During his time with Team Switzerland, the team moved from No. 15 to No. 7 in the World Rankings.

As a player, Krueger played 12 seasons professionally in Germany, nine of which came in the country's top division. In his only season in North America, Kreuger recorded 85 points (30+55) in 65 WHL games for the Calgary Wranglers and New Westminster Bruins in 1979-80. The forward also represented West Germany at both the 1981 and 1986 IIHF World Championships.

MIKE BALES

ASSISTANT COACH

Mike Bales enters his first year as an assistant coach for the Sabres in 2019-20. He joins the organization with six seasons of experience as a goaltending coach in the National Hockey League. The Prince Albert, Saskatchewan native spent the last two seasons with the Carolina Hurricanes, during which the team recorded an 82-64-18 regular-season record.

Prior to joining the Hurricanes, Bales spent six seasons with the Pittsburgh Penguins (2011-12 to 2016-17), winning the Stanley Cup in each of his final two seasons as a member of the Penguins' staff. Originally hired by Pittsburgh in 2011 as a goaltender development coach, his first two seasons with the team were highlighted by helping to scout, draft and develop Penguins goaltender Matt Murray.

Bales was promoted to serve as the Penguins' goaltending coach prior to the 2013-14 season. While serving on the team's coaching staff, he oversaw a four-year span during which the team's goaltenders posted the seventh-best save percentage in the league.

Bales played 18 seasons of professional hockey as a goaltender. He was selected by the Boston Bruins in the fifth round of the 1990 NHL Draft and appeared in 23 NHL games with the Bruins and Ottawa Senators

DON GRANATO

ASSISTANT COACH

Don Granato will serve as an assistant coach for the Sabres this season after he was hired to the position in June 2019. He spent the last two seasons as an assistant coach for the Chicago Blackhawks after serving as the associate head coach for the University of Wisconsin during the 2016-17 season.

During his coaching career, Granato spent seven total seasons in the St. Louis Blues' organization, including one season as an assistant coach for the Blues (2005-06). He also served as the head coach for the Worcester IceCats, St. Louis' AHL affiliate, for five seasons (2000-01 to 2004-05). In his first season with the IceCats, Granato was the recipient of the Louis A.R. Pieri Memorial Award, awarded annually to the AHL's most outstanding coach. He later spent parts of two seasons with the Chicago Wolves (AHL) as the club's head coach from 2008-09 to 2009-10.

Granato began his coaching career in the USHL during the 1993-94 season as the interim head coach of the Wisconsin Capitols. He became general manager and head coach of the Green Bay Gamblers the following campaign and led the team to the best record in the USHL in 1995-96 and 1996-97. The following season, Granato moved to the ECHL, where he spent two seasons as general manager and head coach of the Columbus Chill before winning the Kelly Cup in his only season as head coach of the Peoria Rivermen in 1999-00.

A native of Downers Grove, Illinois, Granato also has extensive experience as a coach at the national level for the United States. From 2011-12 to 2015-16, Granato served as a head coach at the USNTDP, where he led his teams to victories at the 2014 World Under-17 Hockey Challenge and the 2015 IIHF World U18 Championship. He was also an assistant coach for Team USA at the 2015 IIHF World Junior Championship and at the 2014 and 2018 IIHF World Championships.

As a player, he captured an NCAA Championship with the University of Wisconsin in 1990. He spent two seasons in the ECHL with Columbus, posting 90 points (26+64) in 103 career contests.

STEVE SMITH

ASSISTANT COACH

Steve Smith enters his second season with the team after being hired in July 2018. This season will be Smith's 29th overall in the NHL and 11th as an assistant coach.

Before joining the Sabres, Smith served as an assistant coach for the Carolina Hurricanes for four seasons. During his tenure, the Hurricanes allowed the second-fewest shots per game (28) of any NHL team. Prior to joining the Carolina coaching staff, the Glasgow, Scotland native served as an assistant coach for the Edmonton Oilers from 2010-11 to 2013-14 and for the Calgary Flames in 1997-98. His off-ice NHL experience is rounded out by two seasons as a scout for the Chicago Blackhawks in 2008-09 and 2009-10.

During his 16-season NHL playing career, Smith won three Stanley Cups (1987, 1988 and 1990), one Canada Cup (1991) and appeared in one NHL All-Star Game (1991) as a member of the Oilers. In 804 total regular-season games as a defenseman with the Oilers, Blackhawks and Flames, Smith totaled 375 points (72+303). He added 52 points (11+41) in 134 career Stanley Cup Playoff games.

MYLES FEE

VIDEO COACH

Fee spent the last three seasons with the Charlotte Checkers (AHL) and was part of the team's Calder Cup Championship team in 2018-19. During his time in Charlotte, Fee served as video coach and was later promoted to assistant coach/video.

The Dauphin, Manitoba native spent seven years as the video coach for the Edmonton Oilers and also served as the video coach for Ralph Krueger's Team Europe staff at the 2016 World Cup of Hockey. His first NHL experience came with the New York Rangers, where Fee served as a video analyst for four seasons and in team services during the 2005-06 season.

KYLE SMITH

VIDEO COORDINATOR

Smith spent the previous eight seasons in the American Hockey League as the Rochester Americans' video coordinator, where he also handled all aspects of team travel during the last two seasons.

Before joining the Amerks, Smith, the son of former Sabre Derek Smith, spent the 2010-11 season with the Sabres in the pro scouting/hockey analytics department, handling various tasks and working closely with Buffalo's hockey operations personnel. In April 2011 he accepted the interim video coach position with the AHL's Portland Pirates shortly before being elevated to full-time status within the Buffalo Sabres/Rochester Americans organization.

A 2011 graduate of SUNY Cortland, Smith played four years of collegiate hockey for the Red Dragons, serving as team captain his final two seasons.

Prior to his current role, Bandura spent six seasons as the team's director of media relations after spending his first six seasons as the team's media relations coordinator. Bandura oversees all communications and media relations efforts for the Sabres, serving as the team's spokesman and primary media contact at home and on the road. Among his chief duties in this role is serving as the liaison between media members and the Sabres organization, including players and hockey department personnel.

Before joining the Sabres, Bandura spent two years as the media relations coordinator for the Rochester Sports Group, which included the Rochester Americans (AHL), Rochester Raging Rhinos (USL First Division), Rochester Knighthawks (NLL) and Rochester Rattlers (MLL). Prior to his stint in Rochester, Bandura was the vice president of operations for the Columbus Landsharks of the National Lacrosse League (2001-2003). Some of Ott's primary duties include overseeing press box operations, serving as the editor of team publications and preparing the team's game notes. He is also responsible for overseeing media relations efforts for the Buffalo Bandits (NLL). A graduate of SUNY Oswego, Ott worked for the school's sports information department and its student-run newspaper, The Oswegonian, while earning a bachelor's degree in journalism.

2018-19 | HIGHLIGHTS

- With 38 assists and 43 points in 78 games, finished one assist and two points shy of his career-high totals set in the 2016-17 season.
- Became just the third defenseman in Sabres history to record 40 points in at least four consecutive seasons, joining Phil Housley and Jerry Korab.
- Ended the season ranked among the franchise's top 15 defensemen in goals (13th), assists (9th), points (9th), and game-winning goals (T-10th).
- With his fourth career overtime goal on Nov. 8 at Montreal, he passed Phil Housley and Tyler Myers for most ever by a Sabres defenseman.
- Recorded 10 points (1+9) in 10 games from Dec. 4 vs. Toronto to Dec. 27 at St. Louis and later recorded points in nine of 10 games (0+9) from Jan. 14 at Edmonton to Feb. 9 vs. Detroit.

PROFESSIONAL CAREER | HIGHLIGHTS

- The Sabres are 21-4-5 in his career when he records at least two points.
- Has ranked among league leaders in ice time per game in each of the last four seasons; since the NHL began tracking ice time in 1997-98, only Alexei Zhitnik (25:32) has averaged more minutes for the team than Ristolainen's 24:14 per game.
- Recorded an assist on 20.2 percent of his teammates' goals in 2016-17, joining Phil Housley (22.6% in 1989-90) as just the second Sabres defenseman ever to record an assist on more than 20 percent of his teammates' goals in a season.
- His career-high 39 assists in 2016-17 tied him for seventh among all NHL defensemen and were the 19th-most by a defenseman in franchise history, making him only the second Sabres defenseman in 20 years to reach this mark (Brian Campbell, 42 in 2006-07).
- Ranked third among all Sabres and ninth among all NHL defensemen with 202 shots in 2015-16, becoming the first Sabres defenseman to record 200 shots in a season since Phil Housley (1989-90).
- Registered the first hat trick of his career on Dec. 10, 2015 at Calgary, becoming the sixth Sabres defenseman to record a hat trick and the first since Phil Housley (1/22/88 vs. NY Rangers); he also became one of only two Sabres defensemen to score three goals in a single period, joining Jerry Korab (11/19/78 vs. Minnesota) and the youngest NHL defenseman to score a hat trick (21 years, 44 days) since Hannu Virta (19 years, 362 days) did so for the Sabres on 3/19/83 at Montreal.

STANLEY CUP PLAYOFF FORMAT

The NHL underwent a divisional realignment prior to the 2013-14 season that affected the league's playoff format. The format is as follows:

Playoff qualification will be primarily Division-based, with the top three finishers in each Division qualifying for the first 12 spots in the Stanley Cup Playoffs (and the first three "seeds" in each Division).

The two additional playoff spots in each Conference, designated as "Wild Cards," will be awarded to the next two highest-placed finishers in each Conference, ranked on the basis of regular-season points and regardless of Division.

"Seeding" of the Wild Card teams within each Divisional Playoff will be determined on the basis of regular-season points. The first-place finisher with the most regular-season points in the Conference will be matched against the Wild Card team with the fewest regular-season points, and the first-place finisher with the second-most regular-season points in the Conference matched against the Wild Card team with the second-fewest regular-season points.

The Playoffs will proceed as follows:

- #1 vs. WC / #2 vs. #3 – Winners play each other for berth in Conference Championship
- Conference Finals – Two advancing teams in the West and two advancing teams in the East meet in Conference Championship
- Eastern and Western Conference Champions meet in Stanley Cup Final

BUFFALO SABRES RETIRED NUMBERS

The Buffalo Sabres have retired only seven numbers since the franchise's inception in 1970. The first Sabre to have his number retired was Gilbert Perreault (#11) on Oct. 17, 1990. The combination of center Perreault, left wing Rick Martin and right wing Rene Robert was one of the greatest lines in hockey history and without a doubt the best in Buffalo Sabres history. The three wore the blue and gold together from 1972 to 1979 and were labeled "The French Connection," a name whose familiarity was helped by the 1971 movie of the same name. The trio was honored as Martin (#7) and Robert (#14) joined Perreault in a ceremony to retire the numbers of Buffalo's famed "French Connection" on Nov. 15, 1995. The fourth Sabre to have his number retired was Tim Horton (#2) on Jan. 5, 1996. The Sabres retired two more numbers during the 2005-06 season. Right winger Danny Gare (#18) was honored on Nov. 22, 2005, while Pat LaFontaine's #16 was hoisted to the rafters on March 3, 2006. On Jan. 13, 2015, Dominik Hasek became the seventh player – and first goaltender – to have his number retired by the team.

NUMBER 11 | RETIRED OCTOBER 17, 1990

Gilbert Perreault can best be described as the "Original Sabre." The NHL Hall of Famer was Buffalo's first ever draft choice and set the standard by which all future Sabres would be measured. Perreault earned the Calder Trophy as the NHL's Rookie of the Year following his inaugural 1970-71 campaign. Even Perreault's uniform number bore the marks of an original Sabre, as it was #11 that came up on the wheel that gave Buffalo the first overall pick in the 1970 draft. Perreault's sportsmanship and outstanding play also helped him capture the Lady Byng Trophy in 1973. One of Perreault's six NHL All-Star games was the 1978 edition in Buffalo when he scored the game-winning goal 3:55 into overtime. He also served as the Sabres' team captain from 1981-82 until his November 1986 retirement. Perreault is a member of the Hockey Hall of Fame, as well as both the Buffalo Sabres and Greater Buffalo Sports Halls of Fame. Perreault is still the team's all-time leader in career (regular season) games played, goals, assists, points and game-winning goals. There was only one number 11 in Buffalo Sabres history and, rightfully so, there will never be another.

NUMBER 7 | RETIRED NOVEMBER 15, 1995

Buffalo Sabres fans saw Rick Martin in almost 750 regular-season and playoff games between 1971 and 1981. Number 7's career with the Sabres was highlighted by a Stanley Cup Final appearance in 1974-75. That spring, Martin finished with 52 goals – one of which was the 1,000th in team history. The year prior, on the final night of the 1973-74 campaign, he recorded a hat trick at "The Aud" against St. Louis to become the first player in Sabres' history to record 50 or more goals in one season. Martin even gave the hometown fans a reason to cheer in a game at "The Aud" in which he wasn't wearing a Sabres uniform. On Jan. 24, 1978, he scored the tying goal in the 31st NHL All-Star Game with just 1:39 left in regulation time to force overtime. That was just one of seven of the league's showcase games he would appear in during his career. He still holds the Sabres' records for most goals (44) and points (74) by a rookie and his 21 career hat tricks are a franchise-high. In addition, Martin remains in the top three in seven of Buffalo's (regular season) career leaders categories. Martin passed away on March 13, 2011, and his life was celebrated in a public memorial service at HSBC Arena on March 24. The team honored his memory by painting the number seven on the ice behind each goal for the remainder of the regular season and playoffs.

With the warm spring air mixing with "The Aud" ice, Rene Robert skated out of the mist and scored the famous "Fog Goal" by beating Flyers goalie Bernie Parent in overtime of game three of the 1975 Stanley Cup Final. The historic goal might not have taken place if not for the Sabres' persistence in acquiring Robert. His road to Buffalo started with the Sabres claiming him from Toronto, only to lose the winger to Pittsburgh in the Intra-League draft on June 8, 1971. The Sabres were then able to acquire the final component of "The French Connection" in a trade with the Penguins on March 4, 1972. Robert finished the 1974-75 regular season with 100 points, marking the first time in club annals that a player reached the century mark in points in one season. That season, Robert was voted by his teammates as Buffalo's most valuable player. Robert still ranks as Buffalo's fifth all-time assist leader with 330 in his career with the Sabres. Coincidentally, Robert had also once worn number 7 in the blue and gold. He played in both the 1973 and 1975 NHL All-Star games.

Tim Horton skated in the Sabres' blue, white and gold for only two seasons, but the solid defenseman certainly made his mark on the team. Horton came to Buffalo in the intra-league draft in June 1972 from Pittsburgh. Following that campaign, proof that he had made an impression on his fourth NHL club (also played for Toronto, NY Rangers and Pittsburgh) came when he was named the recipient of the Memorial Award as the team's most valuable player as voted by his teammates. Horton saw action in 1,446 NHL regular season games plus 126 more in the postseason. Included in his playing days were eight out of nine complete 70-game seasons played between 1958-59 and 1966-67. Horton was a member of four Stanley Cup winning teams with Toronto and appeared in seven NHL All-Star games. Horton became a member of the Hockey Hall of Fame in 1977 and is also a member of the Buffalo Sabres Hall of Fame.

Danny Gare played his first game for the Sabres on October 10, 1974 against Boston and scored just 18 seconds into his first NHL shift. He finished his rookie season with 62 points (31+31) and contributed 13 points (7+6) in the Sabres' run to the 1975 Stanley Cup Finals. Gare followed up his strong rookie campaign with his first of two 50-goal seasons in 1975-76, when he netted 50 goals and 23 assists in 79 games and chipped in two game-winning goals in the playoffs. That season, Gare recorded three of his 10 career hat tricks as a Sabre. In 1979-80, he scored a career-high 56 goals, including a club-record 11 game-winners. Rick Martin is the only other Sabre to have two 50-goal seasons. With 267 goals as a Sabre, Gare holds the record for goals by a Sabres right wing. He finished his Sabres career with 500 points. Gare's career as a Sabre came to an end on Dec. 2, 1981 when he was traded to the Detroit Red Wings. He spent his final NHL season in Edmonton in 1986-87. The Nelson, B.C. native finished his career with 685 points (354+331) and was inducted into the Sabres Hall of Fame in 1994.

PAT LAFONTAINE

Pat LaFontaine enjoyed an illustrious 15-year career before retiring from the NHL in 1998 as the second-highest scoring American-born player with 468 goals and 1,013 points. He was born in St. Louis, but grew up in the suburbs of Detroit, and is still considered one of the game's best playmakers, fastest skaters, and most humble superstars. A member of the Hockey Hall of Fame in Toronto, LaFontaine began his career in 1983-84 with the New York Islanders. He had a career year for Buffalo in 1992-93 when he set Sabres records for points (148) and assists (95) in a season. After being sidelined by a serious knee injury for most of the 1993-94 season, he returned as team captain in 1994-95 and was awarded the Bill Masterton Trophy for perseverance and dedication to hockey. LaFontaine was with the Sabres from 1991-1997, finishing with 385 points (158+227) in 268 games. He completed the "Empire State Hat Trick" by playing for all three NHL organizations within New York State when he was traded to the Rangers in 1997. He remained one of the Rangers' leading scorers until injuries forced him to prematurely retire on Aug. 11, 1998

GOALTENDER

1992-93 to 2000-01

Originally acquired by the Sabres from the Chicago Blackhawks on Aug. 7, 1992, Dominik Hasek remains one of the most decorated goaltenders in team and league history, appearing in a total of 491 games for the Blue & Gold during a span of nine seasons from 1992-2001. Hasek appeared in a career-high 72 games for the club in the 1997-98 season, setting a team record with 13 shutouts, only to follow that up with a career-best 1.87 goals-against average, .937 save percentage and a Stanley Cup Final berth in 1998-99. While backstopping the Sabres, he became the first goaltender in NHL history to win the Hart Trophy twice (1997 & 1998), while also capturing six Vezina Trophies (1994, 1995, 1997, 1998, 1999 & 2001) as well as the William M. Jennings Trophy (1994 & 2001) and the Lester B. Pearson Award (1997 & 1998) twice each. By the end of his time in Buffalo, Hasek held every meaningful franchise goaltending record and still owns the team's career and single-season records (all from 1998-99) for shutouts (55 career/13 single-season), save percentage (.926/.937) and goals-against average (2.22/1.87).

BUFFALO SABRES ALUMNI PLAZA | KEYBANK CENTER

On October 12, 2012, the Buffalo Sabres unveiled the newly named 'Alumni Plaza' outside the team's arena, designed to honor all former members of the team. As part of the plaza's transformation, the six concrete columns that support a pedestrian walkway above the plaza were surrounded by bricks and mortar. Every player ever to play a game for the franchise is commemorated with a plaque on those bricks, detailing his first game with the Sabres.

Also unveiled that day was the centerpiece of Alumni Plaza: a cast in bronze statue depicting the French Connection. Composed of center Gilbert Perreault, left wing Rick Martin and right wing Rene Robert, the French Connection is widely considered to be one of the greatest forward lines in NHL history and remains the most celebrated offensive unit in Buffalo Sabres history. The trio, all of whom were French-Canadian, was dubbed 'The French Connection' – after the 1971 film of the same name – and played together in Buffalo from the team's acquisition of Robert on March 4, 1972 until his departure on October 5, 1979.

Between them, the members of The French Connection played 2,396 games for the Sabres, scoring 1,116 goals and registering 2,573 total points. During their tenure in Buffalo, the three were honored with a combined 15 NHL All-Star Game appearances and seven selections to the First and Second NHL All-Star Teams. All three are members of the Sabres Hall of Fame and have had their numbers officially retired from use by the Sabres. Perreault, the franchise's first ever draft pick, served as the team's captain for five seasons and retired after 17 NHL seasons – all with the Sabres.

Inspiration for the statue came from a photograph taken during a playoff game at Memorial Auditorium on April 27, 1975 which features all three members of The French Connection. The photograph was taken by award-winning photographer Ron Moscati. During the game in which the photograph was taken, all three members of the French Connection scored a goal to lead the Sabres to a playoff win against the Montreal Canadiens.

To design and construct the statue, the Sabres commissioned distinguished American sculptor Jerry McKenna. McKenna is well known for his sports statues, and was named the 2003 'Sports Sculptor of the Year' by the All-American Football Foundation. A specially-designed pedestal, constructed by HHL Architects of Buffalo, features an integrated lighting system and an illuminated informational panel which provides a base for the statue.

Equipped with one of the National Hockey League's two new teams, the Knox Brothers sought a name for the club that would accompany the Vancouver Canucks into the 1970-71 season. A contest brought about the name "Sabres," which just needed a logo to become the trademark of hockey on the Niagara Frontier. The Sabres crest would remain identical over the first 26 years.

The crest which would adorn the blue, white and gold jerseys of Buffalo Sabres players from October 1970 until April 1996 reflected the team's name. Along with the Buffalo appeared two crossed sabres "renowned as a clean, sharp, decisive and penetrating weapon on offense, as well as a strong parrying weapon on defense," according to team Public Relations Director Chuck Burr's 1970 press release.

A few minor changes were seen in the Buffalo sweaters over the first 26 years, mostly simple accessory changes. After adding players' last names to the back of the sweaters a few years earlier, 1978-79 marked the first season the team's jerseys did not have drawstrings at the neckline and the debut of the team's crest on the shoulders. While the next season was Buffalo's 10th anniversary campaign, a patch honoring that winter's Olympic Games in Lake Placid, New York, was the notable change on the uniforms. The 1980 Winter Olympics is where the legendary "Miracle on Ice" would take place, and where the Sabres held their 1980 training camp. It was probably fitting that 10 years later, a Buffalo Sabres' 20th anniversary logo patch was embroidered on the front right shoulder of the players' uniforms for 1989-90. Two years later, the Sabres joined the other NHL teams in wearing a commemorative patch for the league's 75th anniversary, and fans even had the opportunity to see it on both the home and road jerseys as Buffalo joined 15 other teams in the season-long celebration. For the second half of that season, the Sabres wore their road jerseys at home and donned the home jerseys for away games, to complement the "original six" teams who wore "throwback jerseys." A Stanley Cup centennial patch appeared on the 1992-93 uniforms. Buffalo would again recognize a significant anniversary with a special 25th anniversary logo, which was designed for the team's 1994-95 campaign. Players wore the fifth patch in seven years on the team's sweaters in 1995-96 (bearing jersey number one), remembering former NHL goalie Roger Crozier, who played six of his 14 seasons in the league in Buffalo.

The 1996-97 season began a new era in Buffalo Sabres hockey with a new home, new colors and a new logo. The Sabres' new colors would be black, white, red, gray and silver, featuring a white buffalo head as the new team logo. A secondary logo of a "B" with the familiar sabre piercing through it would also be featured on the shoulder of the new jerseys. In their first season in the new uniforms, the Sabres honored the memory of co-founder Seymour H. Knox III with a circular patch bearing the initials SHK III.

On Nov. 22, 2000, the Sabres unveiled the team's third jersey against the Philadelphia Flyers. The third jersey was a tribute to the original sweater, while incorporating colors and elements from the current design, unveiled in 1996. The organization chose from over 50 different concepts and developed a blend of the 1970s blue and gold crest, featuring the traditional circle and crossed Sabres logo, adorned on a red-based jersey, trimmed in the team's black and silver of the 1990s. The word "BUFFALO" appeared on the lower trim to signify the team's proud attachment to its hometown. The third jersey also featured the current Sabres white buffalo-head logo appearing on the shoulders. The Sabres also wore their original blue and yellow colors with the former logo and design for the season finale, April 4, 2003, against New Jersey.

The Sabres new uniform scheme, unveiled on September 16, 2006, took its inspiration from the original Sabres uniform (1971-1996) and second uniform (1996-2005). The design was a collaborative effort between the Sabres and Reebok International. The new "blue and gold" colors were altered to a deeper navy blue and richer gold that had a greater visual impact both in person and on television broadcasts. Silver accents and a revised "B-Sabre" logo were carried over from the team's second uniform. Unique in the NHL, the new uniforms had player numbers on the front of the jersey. Buffalo also debuted a new alternate uniform that was the original blue uniform from 1970 with the player number on the front like on the newly designed uniforms. The alternate jersey was only worn for the 2006-07 season.

For the Winter Classic game on Jan. 1, 2008, the Sabres wore a modified version of the team's original white jerseys. This was the only time the jersey was worn that season.

The Sabres introduced a new third jersey in 2008-09 that incorporated design elements from the original uniforms while linking elements from the current jerseys. The team's original road uniform (1971-1996) was updated to incorporate the darker navy blue and rich gold featured in the current uniforms along with silver accents on the stripes to give dimension to the original design. The player numbers appeared on the front of the uniform and a neck tie was incorporated, similar to what was worn by the team the first seven years Buffalo was in the league. The original crossed Sabres logo also features silver accents to give a beveled look to the team's original logo. The jersey was designed to incorporate the design elements of the Reebok EDGE uniform system.

During the 2010-11 season the Sabres completed the return to their roots, adopting a uniform at home and on the road that recalled elements of the first uniform in franchise history. At home, the Sabres utilized the team's previous third jersey. On the road, they donned a white jersey that incorporates the same accent elements of the updated home jersey. The team also unveiled an all new 40th anniversary uniform. This classically-designed uniform was a tribute to not only the history of Buffalo hockey, but early NHL jersey designs of the past. The 40th anniversary alternate jersey was worn 12 times at HSBC Arena during the 2010-11 season and continued to serve as the team's alternate jersey in 2011-12.

The Sabres unveiled another new alternate jersey prior to the 2013-14 season that the team would wear for two seasons. Challenged by Sabres ownership to use gold as the primary jersey color for the first time in team history, the Sabres' creative team – in collaboration with Reebok – created a two-tone jersey with gold as the primary color on the front and navy blue on the back. A newly designed Buffalo Sabres wordmark appeared on the players' pant leg as well as just below the neckline on the main jersey, right above the Sabres' traditional crest on the front of the jersey. Additionally, a unique font and number art were designed by Reebok and were inspired by the tips of actual sabers. The all-new font was used for the jersey numbers as well as players' names. Captain and alternate captain insignia incorporated crossed sabers as design elements and the patches were moved from the traditional spot on the chest to the shoulder of the jersey.

The team saw minor changes to both its home and road jerseys when the NHL partnered with adidas before the 2017-18 season to unveil new authentic jerseys for all 31 NHL teams utilizing the company's ADIZERO technology and design elements. While each Sabres jersey retained its general appearance, the most significant changes included the removal of the silver piping and gray accents on the sides of the jerseys.

occasion, the team wore a white jersey that combined design concepts from the franchise's early years with modifications of the team's current logo and elements from the team's 40th anniversary jersey. In addition to minor illustration adjustments to the logo's buffalo and swords, the initials "NY" were added as a marker of the intrastate matchup. The crest and the numbers on the official game jerseys were executed in felt and faux leather materials as a nod to historical "hockey sweater" material construction.

In addition to the crest, the uniform featured three secondary marks: a newly designed shoulder patch that abstracted the Buffalo from the crest and filled it with the team's name; a pair of crossed swords on the pants, also abstracted from the crest; and the Buffalo script wordmark from team's 40th anniversary jersey, now located on the helmet. Following the Winter Classic, the team wore a Winter Classic-style jersey with minor modifications to the one worn at the outdoor game as an alternate jersey for three home games in 2018.

In August 2019, the team unveiled a new alternate jersey to be worn for the team's "Golden Season" 50th anniversary celebration in 2019-20. The jersey was made up of a white base adorned with the iconic Sabres crest in fluorescent gold and navy blue. In homage to the team's history, the jersey included five stripes representing each of the franchise's decades on both sleeves and the jersey's bottom, as well as an inner neckline featuring logos from throughout the team's history.

The Golden Season alternate jersey was only part of the team's 2019 nod toward the past – the Sabres also announced that the 2019-20 season would be the final time the team would wear their navy uniforms, as the team would return to royal blue as its primary color in 2020-21.

HISTORY OF AFFILIATION | EST. 1956

After three seasons with the Portland Pirates, the Buffalo Sabres renewed their affiliation with the Rochester Americans before the 2011-12 season. The 2019-20 season will mark the 38th season of affiliation between the Sabres and Amerks, one of the longest relationships between and NHL team and its AHL affiliate.

The Amerks are entering their historic 64th season in the American Hockey League and the team will once again be an essential pipeline for future Sabres stars. It was during the 1979-80 campaign that the two organizations first formed a professional hockey partnership. Billy Inglis was the first head coach of the Amerks during the affiliation. Future coaches would include Mike Keenan, Joe Crozier, Jim Schoenfeld, Don Lever, John Van Boxmeer, John Tortorella, Brian McCutcheon and Randy Cunneyworth. Both Keenan (New York Rangers, 1994) and Tortorella (Tampa Bay Lightning, 2004) went on to coach NHL teams to Stanley Cup victories.

In 37 years of affiliation, the Amerks have compiled a record of 1,399-1,137-280-35 in 2,852 regular-season games and captured nine regular-season titles. During that period, the Amerks have captured three Calder Cup Championships (1983, 1987 and 1996) and have advanced to the Calder Cup Finals six times.

The Sabres and Pirates enjoyed a successful three-year affiliation (2008-09—2010-11), with the Pirates compiling a 131-79-16-13 overall record and a first-place finish in the Atlantic Division in 2010-11. During the three-year span, three Pirates players were named Dudley “Red” Garrett Memorial Award winners, an award given to the AHL’s most outstanding rookie: Nathan Gerbe (2008-09), Tyler Ennis (2009-10) and Luke Adam (2010-11).

Besides the Sabres, the Amerks have been affiliated with the Montreal Canadiens, Toronto Maple Leafs, Boston Bruins, Vancouver Canucks and Florida Panthers.

CHRIS TAYLOR

HEAD COACH

Rochester Americans General Manager Randy Sexton named Chris Taylor head coach of the Amerks on June 30, 2017. Taylor, who is just the 12th former Amerk to be named head coach and 32nd overall in the 64-year history of the franchise, enters his third season at the helm of the Amerks in 2019-20. Over the previous two seasons, Taylor has compiled an 83-61-8 record and led his team to consecutive playoff appearances.

This past season, Rochester finished with the third-best record (46-23-5-2) in the AHL behind only Charlotte and Syracuse, and their 46 wins were the most by an Amerks team since 2006-07. Taylor became the first bench boss to lead his team to the 40-win mark since Benoit Groulx (44) in 2009-10. Earlier in the year, he also became the first head coach to lead his team to 30 or more wins in each of his first two seasons behind the bench since Hall of Famer Randy Cunneyworth, the all-time winningest coach in franchise history.

During the 2017-18 season, his first as head coach, Taylor guided Rochester to a 37-22-11-6 (91 points) regular-season record and a return trip back to the postseason for the first time in three years. The Amerks finished with the third-best record in the AHL's North Division standings in 2017-18 under Taylor, who became the first head coach to lead the Amerks to the Calder Cup Playoffs in his first season since former colleague Chadd Cassidy. In addition to helping the Amerks snap a three-year playoff drought, Taylor assembled one of the top special teams' units that ranked among the top five in both power-play efficiency (18.3% - 5th) and penalty-killing (84.1% T-4th) in the Eastern Conference.

Taylor, who previously spent a total of 14 seasons in Rochester as a player and coach, returned to the organization after serving as an assistant coach with the Wilkes-Barre/Scranton Penguins during the 2016-17 campaign. He helped guide the Penguins to an AHL-best 51-20-3-2 (107 points) overall record, winning the Macgregor Kilpatrick Trophy as regular season champions while also leading Wilkes-Barre/Scranton to its 14th straight Calder Cup Playoff appearance. The Penguins also finished with the AHL's top defense under Taylor, allowing a league-low 170 goals-against over 76 games in 2016-17. Additionally, Taylor was instrumental in the development of several Penguins prospects with at least 15 different players earning NHL call-ups throughout the year as Pittsburgh captured its second consecutive Stanley Cup championship.

Taylor first joined the Amerks staff as development coach prior to the 2011-12 season following a successful 19-year professional career as a player that saw him become one of the all-time Amerk greats to ever don the red, white and blue. He was elevated to assistant coach on Feb. 25, 2013, a position he retained through the 2015-16 campaign before returning as head coach for the start of the 2017-18 season.

Excluding the 2016-17 season, the Amerks have finished in third place or better in the AHL's North Division standings and have advanced to the postseason in five of the previous seven years with Taylor on the coaching staff. In 2013-14, Taylor helped guide the Amerks to a record of 37-28-6-5 (85 points) and a berth in the Calder Cup Playoffs for the third consecutive year. He also oversaw a power-play unit that ranked 10th in the AHL with a 19.8% efficiency, marking the second straight year that the Amerks have ranked in the top 10 in man-advantage scoring. Over the course of the season, a total of 16 different players appeared in games for both the Amerks and Sabres as the Rochester coaching staff continued to successfully develop NHL players.

In his first season as a member of the Amerks coaching staff in 2011-12, Taylor helped guide the team to a 36-26-10-4 record and a berth in the Calder Cup Playoffs. As development coach, Taylor was primarily responsible for working with the team's forwards. During the season, a total of 11 Amerks players (seven forwards) were called up to the Buffalo Sabres, including left wing Marcus Foligno, who worked extensively with Taylor during the season and was named the NHL Rookie of the Month for March after scoring 11 points in 11 games with the Sabres.
After spending parts of nine seasons with the Amerks between 1999 and 2011, Taylor finished his playing career ranked among the franchise's all-time leaders in assists (3rd, 339), games played (4th, 519), points (5th, 481) and goals (10th, 142). He also served as team captain during the 2004-05 and 2005-06 seasons and was an alternate captain during several other campaigns. Taylor received perhaps the highest honor of his career during the 2014-15 season when he was unanimously inducted into the Amerks Hall of Fame on Jan. 10, 2015 in his first year of eligibility, becoming the 56th member of the prestigious club.

A member of the Amerks' 50th Anniversary Team, Taylor is also a three-time Amerks team MVP and scoring champion (2001-02, 2002-03, 2004-05) and is the only player in franchise history to achieve those two feats in the same season on three occasions. During his final season as a player in 2010-11, Taylor ranked second on the Amerks in scoring with 51 points (10+41) in 72 games. He also finished second on the team in scoring the previous year with 61 points (17+44) when he returned to Rochester following a three-year stint in Germany, where he played for Frankfurt and led the team in scoring all three seasons.

During the 2004-05 campaign in which the Amerks won the Macgregor Kilpatrick Trophy with the AHL's best regular season record, Taylor was the Amerks scoring leader with 79 points (21+58) and was honored with the AHL's Fred T. Hunt Award for sportsmanship, determination and dedication to the game of hockey. Taylor also shares the franchise record for most assists in a single game with six, set on Oct. 21, 2005. During his pro career, Taylor appeared in 149 NHL games with the New York Islanders, Boston Bruins and Sabres, recording 32 points (11+21) and 48 penalty minutes. Of those 149 games, 90 came in a Buffalo uniform. In 2003-04, he set NHL career-highs in games played (54), goals (6), assists (6) and points (12) while with the Sabres.

Prior to joining the Sabres/Amerks organization in 1999, Taylor won two Turner Cup Championships with Denver and Utah of the International Hockey League. The Stratford, Ontario, native was originally drafted by the Islanders in the second round (27th overall) of the 1990 NHL Entry Draft and finished his pro career with 1,297 games played at the NHL, AHL, IHL and European levels.

HEAD COACH

Taylor resides in Churchville with his wife, Lisa, and their two children, Samantha and Nicholas. He is the brother of former NHL player Tim Taylor, who won Stanley Cups with the Detroit Red Wings in 1997 and the Tampa Bay Lightning in 2004.

GORD DINEEN

ASSISTANT COACH

Rochester Americans assistant coach Gord Dineen enters his 18th season as an AHL coach and third with the Amerks in 2019-20.

The Amerks finished among the top three teams in the AHL's North Division last season and advanced to the postseason for the second straight year with Dineen, who works primarily with the team's defensemen.

Dineen's biggest success story since joining Rochester's coaching staff has been centered around Zach Redmond, who last season was honored with the Eddie Shore Award as the AHL's outstanding defenseman. The veteran blueliner finished the 2018-19 regular season with career-best totals of 21 goals (tops among all AHL defensemen) and 50 points, along with a plus-13 rating. He tied for the overall league lead with nine game-winning tallies and ranked first among blueliners with 10 power-play goals (tied) and 200 shots on goal. Redmond, who broke a 46-year-old franchise record for goals by a defenseman in a single season, was also voted a First Team AHL All-Star following a Second Team selection in 2017-18 when he was just one of three AHL blueliners to lead his respective team in scoring.

Additionally, six of the 13 players that were recalled by the Buffalo Sabres last season were defensemen under Dineen's watch, including the highly touted pairing of Lawrence Pilut and Will Borgen, who combined for 37 games with the big club in 2018-19.

During the 2017-18 season, his first with Rochester, Dineen commanded an immensely skilled defensive corps, featuring a balance of established veterans and a crop of young prospects, that ranked among the top of the AHL in terms of offensive production. Five of the 15 defensemen he worked closely with also saw time in the NHL with the Sabres.

Prior to joining Rochester's coaching staff, Dineen held various roles over eight seasons with the AHL's Toronto Marlies, including assistant coach (2009-14), head coach (2014-15) and associate coach (2015-17). During his time in Toronto, Dineen helped guide the team to six 40-win seasons, four division titles and a regular-season championship.

As an associate coach during the 2015-16 season, Dineen helped the Marlies to an AHL-best 54-21-1 record, winning the Macgregor Kilpatrick Trophy as regular season champions while also leading Toronto to its fourth North Division title in five years. The Marlies also advanced to the postseason in each of the last six years with Dineen behind the bench, including a trip to the Calder Cup Finals in 2012 and two other appearances in the Western Conference Finals.

Prior to the 2014-15 season, Dineen was elevated to head coach of the Marlies, leading the team to a 40-27-9 overall record, good for second place in the AHL's North Division, and a berth in the playoffs.

Dineen joined the Marlies after serving as head coach of the Iowa Chops for the 2008-09 season. He began his pro coaching career as the assistant coach of the AHL's Louisville Panthers in 2000-01 before two years as head coach with the ECHL's Macon Whoopee (2001-02) and Richmond Renegades (2002-03). He also held several AHL coaching stints as the assistant coach of the Springfield Falcons (2003-04), Utah Grizzlies (2004-05), San Antonio Rampage (2005-07) and Portland Pirates (2007-08).

A native of Toronto, Ontario, Dineen enjoyed an 18-year pro playing career as a defenseman between 1982 and 2000. A second-round pick of the New York Islanders in the 1981 NHL Entry Draft, Dineen registered 106 points (16+90) in 528 career NHL games with the Islanders, Minnesota North Stars, Pittsburgh Penguins and Ottawa Senators. Dineen also spent parts of two seasons in the American Hockey League with the Springfield Indians as well as in the International Hockey League with stops in Kalamazoo, Muskegon, San Diego, Denver, Utah and Chicago.

Dineen is the son of AHL Hall of Fame coach Bill Dineen and is the brother of Shawn, Peter and Kevin Dineen, all of whom played pro hockey.

TOBY PETERSEN

ASSISTANT COACH

Toby Petersen enters his third season with the Rochester Americans and sixth as an assistant coach in the American Hockey League after being named to the position on July 13, 2017.

The Amerks finished among the top three teams in the AHL's North Division in 2018-19 and advanced to the postseason for the second straight year with Petersen, who was again instrumental in the development of Rochester's forwards, most notably Victor Olofsson. A year after leading the SHL in goals, the Swedish forward took his first season in North America by storm, leading the AHL in scoring through October before finishing the season as Rochester's leader in goals, assists and points. Olofsson, who earned CCM/AHL Player of the Month honors for October, finished tied for eighth in the AHL in goals and 14th among the league's top point-getters in overall scoring. He would also be rewarded with a late season recall to the Buffalo Sabres, where he added four points on two goals and two assists in six games with the big club.

During the 2017-18 season, his first in Rochester, Petersen helped the team to a third-place finish in the AHL's North Division standings in addition to helping the Amerks snap a three-year playoff drought. Petersen also helped assemble one of the top power-play units that ranked among the top five (18.3%) in the Eastern Conference.

Petersen's biggest success story that year came with then-rookie forward C.J. Smith, who led the club's first-year skaters in every offensive category while tying for second on the team in goals, third in points and fourth in assists. The Amerks Rookie of the Year finished the campaign ranked 10th and 11th among all AHL rookies in points and assists, respectively. Smith was also named MVP of the 2018 AHL All-Star Challenge during his first AHL All-Star Classic.

Prior to joining head coach Chris Taylor's staff in Rochester, Petersen spent two seasons (2015-17) as an assistant coach with the Cleveland Monsters of the American Hockey League. During his first season in Cleveland in 2015-16, Petersen guided the team to a 43-28-5 record in the regular season before helping the Monsters capture their first Calder Cup championship in franchise history. Cleveland went 15-2 during the postseason, which included series sweeps over Rockford, Ontario and Hershey as the Monsters finished with a 7-1 record on home ice in the playoffs.

A native of Minneapolis, Minn., Petersen made his pro coaching debut as an assistant coach with the Springfield Falcons in 2014-15 following a 14-year playing career as a forward. Originally a ninth-round selection of the Pittsburgh Penguins in the 1998 NHL Entry Draft, Petersen recorded 81 points (33+48) in 398 career NHL games with Pittsburgh, Edmonton and Dallas while also adding 374 points (148+226) in 550 AHL appearances for Wilkes-Barre/Scranton, Edmonton, Iowa and Texas. He retired from playing after winning a Calder Cup with the Texas Stars in the 2013-14 campaign.

Before turning pro, Petersen played four years at Colorado College, where he was named to the All-WCHA Rookie Team as a freshman. He also represented the United States at several international events, including winning a silver medal at the 1997 World Junior Championship. Petersen resides in Cleveland during the offseason with his wife, Alexa, and their children, Bjorn (12), Elliott (9) and Nola (6).

TELEVISION

In June 2016, the Sabres and MSG Networks announced a new, long-term rights agreement for Buffalo Sabres games and the creation of "MSG Western New York," a comprehensive programming partnership that will air new content relating to the Sabres and other Pegula Sports and Entertainment properties on MSG in Western New York.

In the 2019-20 season, the Sabres and MSG will continue their partnership in which MSG will own the exclusive local rights to telecast the team's games. MSG Networks, an industry leader in production and technology, is the nation's longest-running regional sports network and part of Madison Square Garden L.P.

All Sabres telecasts on MSG are produced and broadcast by the team's in-house broadcasting team and feature the Sabres broadcasters and analysts exclusively.

Calling the action on MSG telecasts and on WGR 550 AM are Foster Hewitt Award winner and Sabres Hall-of-Famer Rick Jeanneret, who embarks on his 49th year behind the microphone in 2019-20, and veteran broadcaster Dan Dunleavy, who returns for his seventh season with the Sabres' broadcast team. In addition to his play-by-play duties, Dunleavy will contribute to the Sabres' pre- and post-game shows and to Sabres.com.

Rob Ray, a 16-year veteran of Sabres broadcasts, is in his eighth season as the full-time color analyst. After joining the broadcast team in 2003-04, Ray served as a second color analyst and the "between-the-glass" reporter for eight seasons before stepping into his current role. In his role as color analyst, Ray remains at ice level to provide a close-up perspective of the game's action.

Brian Duff, who joined the Sabres broadcast team in 2011-12, will again serve as the full-time in-game host for all Sabres broadcasts on MSG. In that role, Duff will host the pregame show the post-game report and the intermission reports between periods.

Former Sabres goaltender Martin Biron returns for his third season with the Sabres' broadcast, providing in-depth analysis before, during and after games alongside Duff.

RICK JEANNERET | PLAY-BY-PLAY ANNOUNCER

Currently the longest-tenured broadcaster in hockey, Rick Jeanneret will begin his 49th year behind the microphone calling the action for Buffalo Sabres games. Jeanneret was the 2012 recipient of the Foster Hewitt Memorial Award – the most prestigious award given to hockey broadcasters – and was formally recognized by the Hockey Hall of Fame in November 2012. He was inducted into the Sabres Hall of Fame in 2011 and was inducted into the Greater Buffalo Sports Hall of Fame in fall 2012.

With his vast knowledge of the game and his unwavering enthusiasm for hockey, Jeanneret's distinct voice has been synonymous with the Buffalo Sabres for over four decades. He began his prolific career with the Sabres in the 1971-72 season as the club's radio play-by-play announcer and served primarily in that role until 1995, when he began calling the action for the team's televised games as well. His memorable calls and player nicknames have become forever linked with Sabres history for generations of fans.

Jeanneret's career officially began in 1963, when the St. Catharines, Ontario native filled in for the regular announcer at a Niagara Falls Flyers (Junior A) game. He went on to become the color analyst for one season before moving to the play-by-play position in 1965.

Jeanneret currently resides in Niagara Falls, Ontario with his wife, Sandra. Rick has two sons, Mark and Chris.

DAN DUNLEAVY | PLAY-BY-PLAY ANNOUNCER/REPORTER

Prior to joining the Sabres broadcast team in 2013, Dan Dunleavy spent 19 years at Sportsnet Radio and The Fan 590 Toronto. In addition to filling in as a play-by-play voice for the Sabres in the 2010-11 season, Dunleavy's experience includes nine years of play-by-play for the IIHF World Junior Hockey Championship, the 2008 IIHF World Hockey Championship in Halifax and Quebec City, Men's and Women's Hockey at the 2010 Vancouver Olympics, the OHL's Mississauga Majors, and Canadian Hockey League and American Hockey League games on Rogers Sportsnet.

The Toronto native has also called soccer and lacrosse games, serving as the play-by-play voice for the National Lacrosse League's Toronto Rock on The Fan 590 and the radio and television play-by-play voice for Toronto FC on Sportsnet TV/Radio and TSN 1050 Radio.

ROB RAY | COLOR ANALYST

Rob Ray, who begins his 16th season on Buffalo Sabres broadcasts, will be entering his eighth season as the full-time color analyst for all Sabres games this season. After joining the broadcast team in 2003-04, Ray has served as a color analyst and the "between-the-benches" reporter for the past 15 years. In his role as color analyst, Ray will remain at ice level to provide a close-up perspective of the game's action.

Ray's hockey expertise stems from his 16-year NHL career as a right wing, 14 seasons of which were spent with the Sabres. Known for his toughness on the ice, Ray ranks sixth in NHL history for career penalty minutes (3,207) and holds the Sabres' team record in the same category with 3,189 penalty minutes. Ray played in 900 total NHL games during his career and 889 games with the Sabres, the fourth-most in franchise history.

Despite being one of the game's toughest enforcers, Ray was also awarded the NHL's King Clancy Memorial Award in 1999 for his leadership and humanitarianism. He remains as one of the Sabres' most active alumni, currently serving as president of the Sabres Alumni Association. Ray and his wife, Julianne, live in Grand Island, New York with their son, Rob Jr., and their daughter, Jordan.

BRIAN DUFF | STUDIO HOST

A 28-year broadcasting veteran, Brian Duff begins his seventh full season as the studio host for all Buffalo Sabres broadcasts. He joined the broadcast team in 2011-12 on a part-time basis in the same role for many of the team's road games.

Duff came to the Sabres after spending five seasons with the NHL Network, most recently as host of NHL on the Fly and NHL Tonight.

Prior to joining NHL Network, Duff spent six years as the pre- and post-game host for Toronto Maple Leafs hockey on Leafs TV. His extensive hockey broadcasting career also includes stints as the radio host for pre- and post-game coverage of the Ottawa Senators and Edmonton Oilers and radio game analyst for the Senators and the WHL's Medicine Hat Tigers.

In addition, Duff has provided play-by-play for the National Lacrosse League on Versus and TSN, including the 2010 and 2011 championship games. He worked at The Score as an anchor and reporter and provided play-by-play for Ottawa Rebel lacrosse and the Mann Cup. Duff has also freelanced for multiple media outlets including ESPN and the Associated Press.

Duff, who grew up in Whitby, Ontario, holds a broadcasting diploma from Mount Royal College in Calgary and currently resides in Hamburg, New York with his wife, Leilon, and their children, Isabelle and Rhiannon.

MARTY BIRON | STUDIO ANALYST

Martin Biron is in his third season as the studio analyst for the Buffalo Sabres after being named to the position in August 2017. His primary role is to serve as an analyst alongside Brian Duff during the pregame, intermission and postgame portions of the broadcast. Biron will also provide in-game analysis at select times both at ice level and in the broadcast booth.

Biron was the Sabres' first-round pick in the 1995 NHL Draft and went on to rank fourth in franchise history among goaltenders with 300 games played in his nine seasons with the club. In 2007, he was traded to the Philadelphia Flyers and led the team to the 2008 Eastern Conference Final. Following his time in Philadelphia, Biron went on to spend time with the Islanders and Rangers before retiring from the NHL in October 2013.

In addition to his role on the Sabres' broadcast, Bison is a frequent contributor to The Instigators and produces content for Sabres.com. He also assists with the goaltending program for the Academy of Hockey.

RADIO BROADCAST

WGR 550 sports radio

Sabres coverage on the radio can be found exclusively on WGR 550, the team's radio partner for more than 25 years. Game-day broadcasts include the action from Jeanneret and Ray, along with a post-game show hosted by Brian Koziol featuring a complete game recap, player interviews and scores from around the league. Paul Hamilton, who returns as the station's Sabres beat reporter, will provide live updates from Sabres games and practices all season long.

Returning for its eighth season is the team's flagship radio program, The Instigators. The show is broadcast live, year-round from 10 a.m. to 12 p.m. Monday through Friday. The program is an additional outlet for Sabres fans to hear exclusive interviews, analysis, team updates, and recaps of Sabres games and practices.

Serving as hosts of The Instigators are former Sabres Andrew Peters and Craig Rivet. Peters was a member of the Sabres for five seasons, from 2003-04 to 2008-09 before joining the show full-time in 2014-15. Rivet, who joined Peters as a co-host in 2016, captained the Sabres from 2008 to 2011.
